Invest in GAVEA

Become an ally for enterprise on
SoCal's Leading Edge

Greater Antelope Valley
Economic Alliance
Allies for Enterprise

For the better part of two decades, GAVEA has been a major force in helping businesspeople to create, maintain and expand their companies and the wealth-creating local jobs that they provide.

Through outreach, education and collaboration, we're making the world well aware of our 3,000 square miles of opportunity – accessible, affordable and available.

GAVEA also produces the area's single best resource for economic data, the annual Economic Roundtable Report as well as periodic Labor Base Analyses and other proprietary and collaborative research.

These invaluable tools provide both existing area executives as well as potential relocating CEOs with timely, accurate and insightful information you'll find nowhere else.

We invite you to become a part of this important voice for Southern California's Leading Edge. You will gain new perspective and intelligence only GAVEA can deliver.

An investment of as little as $208/month can provide your organization with the opportunity to improve and sustain the economic vitality of our region.

If you'd rather not go it alone, if finding allies in enterprise is important to you, join us in our quest to create a more vibrant and healthy regional economy. Invest in GAVEA today.

Investor Benefits:

- Participation in critical decisions that positively impact the economic future of our region.
- Priority access to GAVEA's economic reports and publications.
- Economic updates and insights from key experts at quarterly meetings. Each Investor organization is entitled to four free tickets to each quarterly event.
- Real-time data and information through our website and e-newsletters.
- Inclusion and acknowledgement in GAVEA publications and marketing materials.
- Discounted rates on B2B sponsorship opportunities offered through GAVEA events and publications.
- Participation in all GAVEA special events and other exclusive Investor-only opportunities.

If your organization is unable to join GAVEA at this time, consider offering your tax-deductible contribution in any amount to our affiliated Antelope Valley Economic Research and Education Foundation. This 501(c)(3) organization is dedicated to furthering the research and education critical to the retention, expansion and attraction of wealth-creating jobs and opportunities within our region.
